Dear Mr. Payne,

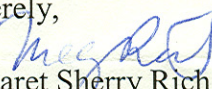

Permission is granted for your one-time, one-format, one-language use of the items cited from the Florovsky Papers at Princeton in your message of July 13, 2006, in your forthcoming doctoral dissertation for Baylor University's Dawson Institute of Church-State Studies. All fees are waived.

You may cite these items as coming from the Florovsky Papers, Manuscripts Division, Department of Rare Books and Special Collections, Princeton University Library. The Library prefers to be acknowledged as follows: "Published with permission of the Princeton University Library."

Princeton University owns only the physical items, not the copyright, and therefore does not assume any responsibility for copyright or any other legal issues involved in the use or publication of these items. It is the responsibility of the researcher to secure permission from the appropriate copyright holder.

Thank you for your cooperation and for your interest in the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections.

Sincerely,

Margaret Sherry Rich
Reference Librarian/Archivist
